FROM THE PRESIDENT

We have had a busy month since our last meeting. The fall enrollmnt tea was well attended. We have two new members and several possibilities. A special thanks to Karen, Angie, and their committee for a job well done!

Our ABWA banquet was also quite successful. Over 100 ABWA women and guests attended. I have copies of the handouts that Mrs. Whitworth left with us if anyone would like one. The Kentucky Colonel Chapter will be in charge of the event for next year..... so PLEASE... let me have your ideas, for next years speaker, entertainment and program.

CONGRATULATIONS! to Leanne on her recent promotion (on ABWA Day) to the position of Assistant to the Director of Operations, Licensing Division at Union Underwear.

CONGRATULATIONS! to Angie on her promotion to Assistant Manager of Central Files at American National Bank.

BEST WISHES! to our newly-wed, Pam Hunter Holdcraft !

We have been asked to work with the BG-WC Tourism Commission in developing a theme for a local festival and participating in related activities. Anyone who is interested in working with this group and representing our club at these meetings, please let me know.

Please volunteer your time to work at our booth at the Open Market at the Greenwood Mall October 29 and 30. Mary Jane will have sign-up sheets tonight. Please donate your time and your truffles.

Belle and her committee are hard at work to make this our most successful fashion show ever. We all need to put forth a great deal of effort as this is our largest ways and means project for our scholarships. Say "YES" when Belle asks.

The Executive Board has set the following goals for this year:

1. Earn the Standard of Achievement and Banner Awards
2. Increase membership .. at least 12 new members
3. Increase ways and means income in order to award more scholarships and the advancement of our members

It will take the cooperation and effort of each member in order to meet these goals. We're off to a good start already. Let's continue to be involved in ABWA..... it's what we make of it!

Halloween or Allhallows Eve is the name applied to the evening of October 31, preceding the Christian feast of Hallowmas, Allhallows, or All Saints Day. The observances connected with Halloween are believed to have originated among the ancient Druids, who believed that on that evening, Saman, the lord of the dead, called forth hosts of evil spirits. The Druids customarily lit great fires on Halloween apparently for the purpose of warding off these evil spirits.

Among the ancient Celts, Halloween was the last evening of the year and it was regarded as a propitious time for examining the portents of the future. The Celts also believed that the spirits of the dead revisited their earthly homes on that evening. After the Romans conquered Britain, they added to Halloween features of the Roman harvest festival held on November 1 in honor of Pomona, goddess of the fruit trees.

The Celtic tradition of lighting fires on Halloween survived until modern times in Scotland and Wales, and the concept of ghosts and witches is still common to all Halloween observances. Traces of the Roman harvest festival survive in the custom, prevalent in the United States and Great Britain, of playing games involving fruit such as ducking for apples in a tub of water. Of similar origin is the use of hollowed out pumpkins carved to resemble grotesque faces and lit by candles placed inside.

In recent years in this country and others, there has been much apprehension by parents in allowing their children to carry on the tradition of trick-or-treating. Reports of sadistic tricks played on helpless children circulate each year causing the number of trick-or-treaters to decline. In this wave of violence and sadism in our country, please allow your children to trick-or-treat in homes of persons that you know personally, and always inspect your child's treats. Some parents have even opted for Halloween parties in lieu of trick-or-treating. Many local organizations in your community may be sponsoring Halloween parties in order to help deter tragic occurrences. Check it out!
